

Holiday Villa Gundogan (Bodrum, Turkey)

This detached villa has a private swimming pool and is only 400 meters from the sea. The villa is near the village of Gundogan on the Aegean coast. This typical Turkish village has an attractive boulevard and a number of restaurants. The villa is comfortably furnished and is equipped with every modern convenience. The swimming pool enjoys splendid views of Gundogan Bay. When you prefer some shade there is a spacious covered veranda of around 65 m². There is also a covered balcony which is accessible from the bedrooms. The sea and the beach are only a few minute's walk away. You can enjoy plenty of water sports here. Golf and tennis facilities are in the vicinity. The ancient town and port of Bodrum, the most well known town on the peninsula, is twenty five minutes away by car. This fascinating town has many places of interest and you can enjoy a variety of excursions from there. Many affluent Turkish people enjoy holidays in their villas in Bodrum, in fact, it is often called the Turkish St Tropez. Scattered around the peninsula are many attractive markets, boulevards and small towns well worth visiting. Lovers of beautiful scenery will enjoy the surrounding forests and lakes.

The villa is within easy reach of the Bodrum Airport (approx. 40 minutes) with direct flights from the international airports. Renting a car is highly recommended and can be arranged by us.

The villa has a spacious living room with a large fully equipped kitchen, three bedrooms and three bathrooms and sleeping accommodation for 8 people (7 adults and one child). The total living area is 135m². The plot is 650m². The garden is planted with trees (olives and palms) and is illuminated. The private pool is also illuminated.
